

Any home can be a high performance home.

Whether you want to improve the resale value of your home or are looking for a new, more resource-efficient property, a REALTOR® with NAR's Green Designation can help.

NAR Green Designees really know green.

While considering updates to your home, I can help you:

- 🏠 Understand the advantages of resource-efficient upgrades to existing homes
- 🏠 Interpret the benefits of high performance features
- 🏠 Select the best products and professionals
- 🏠 Research information on improving resource use
- 🏠 Access a variety of credits, incentives, and programs
